

PAUL HOBBS

— WINERY —

BRYCEN HILL

DIRECTOR OF VINEYARDS

Brycen Hill joined Paul Hobbs Wines in 2017. He was promoted from Viticulturist to Vineyard Operations Manager in 2018, and elevated to Director of Vineyards in 2022. Originally from Virginia, Brycen attended Virginia Tech University, earning his Bachelor's degree in Chemistry and his Master of Science degree in Plant Sciences with a focus on Viticulture. Brycen's research contributions have been published in the American Journal of Enology and Viticulture.

Prior to Paul Hobbs, Brycen worked in both the cellar and the vineyard, including several harvests in Virginia, as well as several months spent working for an organic producer in Corbieres-Boutenac AOC of France. Brycen meticulously manages about 350 acres through a combination of science, sustainability, and practicality. He currently resides in West Sonoma County near the town of Occidental, CA with his wife and dog.

