CELLARMASTER

Roberto Ruiz joined the Paul Hobbs Winery cellar team in July 2004. As he approaches 20 years of employment at the winery, Roberto currently holds the title of Cellarmaster. Roberto oversees the cellar crew, and ensures all wines are produced to the standard of excellence that customers have come to expect vintage after vintage. Outside of his duties at Paul Hobbs Winery, Roberto is passionate about sustainable farming, raising his own livestock and attending a bountiful fruit and vegetable garden. Roberto is proud to incorporate farm-to-table into his daily life and often will share his harvest with the rest of the employees at the winery.
